So im thinking of maybe making my homepage like a 2000s neocities page, but idk where to find them. Since they have to be neocities.com/username specific, and coincidentally have to be archived.

Does any1 know a few working links? preferably about tech or something. dm me on discord or join my server at <http://discord.redtro.net>

I think itd be cool

The best bet are neocities own archive here: <https://neocities.org/browse?tag=archive>
